Notes and corrections

- 1 Several other European cities are known as 'the Venice of the North', including Amsterdam, Birmingham, Bruges, Copenhagen, Hamburg, St. Petersburg, Wroclaw and even Manchester.
- 2 There is considerable uncertainty about Titian's date of birth: most sources put it somewhere between 1474 and 1488.
- 3 The Choral Symphony is the name given to Beethoven's Ninth Symphony in D Minor. Symphony No.5 is in C Minor; it has no other name.
- 4 Although born and raised in Switzerland, Grosjean (not 'Grosjeanil') has dual Swiss-French nationality and races under the French flag.
- 5 Walker is not the only manager to have achieved this feat. Herbert Chapman managed both Huddersfield Town (1922) and Arsenal (1930) to cup success.
- 6 'Germs' and 'contamination' are equally acceptable answers.
- 7 If a specific answer is required (e.g. 'thigh' rather than 'leg') it should be made clear in the question.
- 8 Most occupations have more than one patron saint and bee-keeping is no exception. Equally acceptable answers are 'Gobnait', 'Valentine' and 'Bernard (of Clairvaux)'.
- 9 Although it is commonly applied to a fear of eating, it is more accurate to describe phagophobia as a fear of swallowing.
- 10 Many other Asian cities are known as 'the Venice of the East', including Jakarta, Osaka, Basra, Srinagar and Bandar Seri Begawan.
- 11 'Solfatara' is an equally acceptable answer.
- 12 Haydn's Symphony No. 1 in D major does not have an alternative name
The Clock Symphony is the name given to Haydn's Symphony No. 101 in D major.
- 13 The correct term is bhishti, not bhistil.
- 14 All question setters are reminded that the question-setting guidelines state:
"Don't make the questions too hard. This is the Stockport Quiz League, not University Challenge, and is meant to be a fun night out! As a general rule of thumb all teams should be able to answer at least half the questions correctly, so aggregate scores should not be lower than 80."
